

BUT LITTLE VIOLENCE AGAINST CARS TODAY

TURNING THE TABLES ON THE UNITED RAILROADS

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—The carmen's union has made a new move against the United Railroads. One hundred and fifty "John Doe" warrants charging violation of a city ordinance were sworn to this morning and will be served at the car barns. The ordinance alleged to have been violated makes it a misdemeanor for a motorman or conductor to operate a street car without one week's instruction from an experienced man.

CASTRO-STREET CAR STONED

Unknown Old Man Has His Eye Cut With Flying Brickbat-- Miscreants Escaped.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—About 125 cars are running this morning on seven lines of the United Railroads—Twenty-ninth and Valencia, Haight street, Turk and Eddy, Sutter, Ellis, Mission to Twentieth ninth and the Castro and Twentieth street line. The latter is additional to yesterday's operations.

The outlook for the day so far as peaceful operation is concerned is not different from yesterday. Desultory acts of violence and more or less general disorder are anticipated by the police, but no serious riot is looked for. All of the streets on which cars are running are strung with Dunan's officers and 100 special police are held in reserve. About 500 bluecoats are on duty along the routes.

FIRST VIOLENCE OF DAY

The first act of violence to be reported today occurred at 10:30 a. m. at the corner of Third and Market streets. A ferry bound Castro street car was stoned from the sidewalks. Eye witnesses say that twenty or thirty brickbats and stones were

DISTRESSING SCENE AS FUNERAL TRAIN MOVES

People on Board Are in Mortal Terror of Another Wreck on the Road.

SANTA BARBARA, May 14.—There were many distressing incidents in connection with the departure of the train Mrs. Wasson whose husband was among the dead totally collapsed at the depot and other women gave way completely to their grief. A couple of children, whose relatives were among the party, became hysterical at the sight of the train and could not be comforted.

The party was taken care of as well as possible in the Pullmans and the sad homeward journey began. The Southern Pacific officials awake to their responsibility did everything possible to lessen the load of care and sorrow for those on board.

Notwithstanding the safeguards and cautions that have been taken the fear of another wreck is still uppermost in the minds of many of those on the train. The derauling yesterday of the south-bound passenger train on the coast line near Salinas has added to the apprehension. The train will reach San Luis Obispo some time this afternoon.

APPOINTMENT OF LOCAL MAN

Vacancy Caused by Death of Captain Smith Will Probably Be Filled Here.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—Andrew K. Vandeventer, who a few days ago was made treasurer of the Southern Pacific Co. for years been assistant treasurer of that company in New York. The position of treasurer on this coast made vacant by the recent death of Captain J. J. Smith will soon be filled probably by the appointment of a local man.

AL. PALM IS BETTER

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—At the Clara Barton Hospital this morning it was noted that Al. Palm, the Oakland chauffeur who was accidentally shot in the strike riot of last Friday night, now is considered out of danger but that he could not be able to leave the hospital for probably a couple of weeks.

WILL INVESTIGATE CASE THOROUGHLY

U. S. Commissioners Ask Wreck Details

SAN BERNARDINO, May 14.—That the Interstate Commerce Commission is to make a thorough investigation of the Southern Pacific wreck at Colton several weeks ago in which twenty-four persons lost their lives is indicated from Secretary Edward A. Mosley of the Commission at Washington asking that a certified copy of the testimony taken at the coroner's inquest be forwarded to him.

We note that it is charged that the company supplied to the Italian passengers cars that were unfit for public service. We wish to have all possible light on this subject also to know all the circumstances surrounding the wreck. Says the secretary's message.

INDICTMENTS STILL STAND St. John's Motion Denied by Court

GOLDFIELD, Nev., May 14.—In the district court yesterday Judge Langan continued the Preston-Smith murder case until May 23. The postponement was opposed by Booth Malone and other attorneys for the prosecution who wished an immediate sentence so desired but the defense wanted a full month's delay. The court ruled, however, that the transcript of evidence would probably be ready within ten days and continued the case until May 23.

The motion to quash indictments against Vincent St. John and his six fellow defendants in the alleged conspiracy to murder was denied by Judge Langan this morning.

TRAIN OF SORROW BEARS VICTIMS HOME

Shriner Train Starts With Dead and Living

SANTA BARBARA, May 14.—Two coaches filled with mourning Shriners and their wives accompanying a baggage car bearing the caskets of the twenty-one victims of the Honda disaster formed the funeral train left here at 10:40 this morning. Members of Rajah Temple and visitors from Pennsylvania are the ones who will keep the long vigil over the dead until they reach home. Most of the dead are from Reading, Pa. Ismail Temple of Buffalo left on the regular train at noon and took on those of the funeral at San Luis Obispo who were able to travel. These included John Logan, the Buffalo baggage man whose leg was broken in two places and Mrs. Fred Grummond of Binghamton whose husband still is a subject of high praise among the wreck survivors.

The eleven dead at San Luis Obispo were also taken aboard the funeral train. The train was draped in black and the caskets of the dead hidden under huge banks of flowers sent to the Shriners by nearly every person in Santa Barbara who possessed a flower garden.

LIVING AND DEAD EN ROUTE TO THEIR HOME

Victims of Shriner Wreck Will Pass Through Oakland on Special.

The funeral train carrying the bodies of the Shriners killed in the Honda wreck will pass through this city during the night and will continue homeward without unnecessary delay. The dead are being escorted by those who fortunately escaped uninjured in the wreck. One train is devoted to the members and the lead of Rajah Temple, Reading, Penn., and the other to those affiliated with Ismail Temple of Buffalo, N. Y.

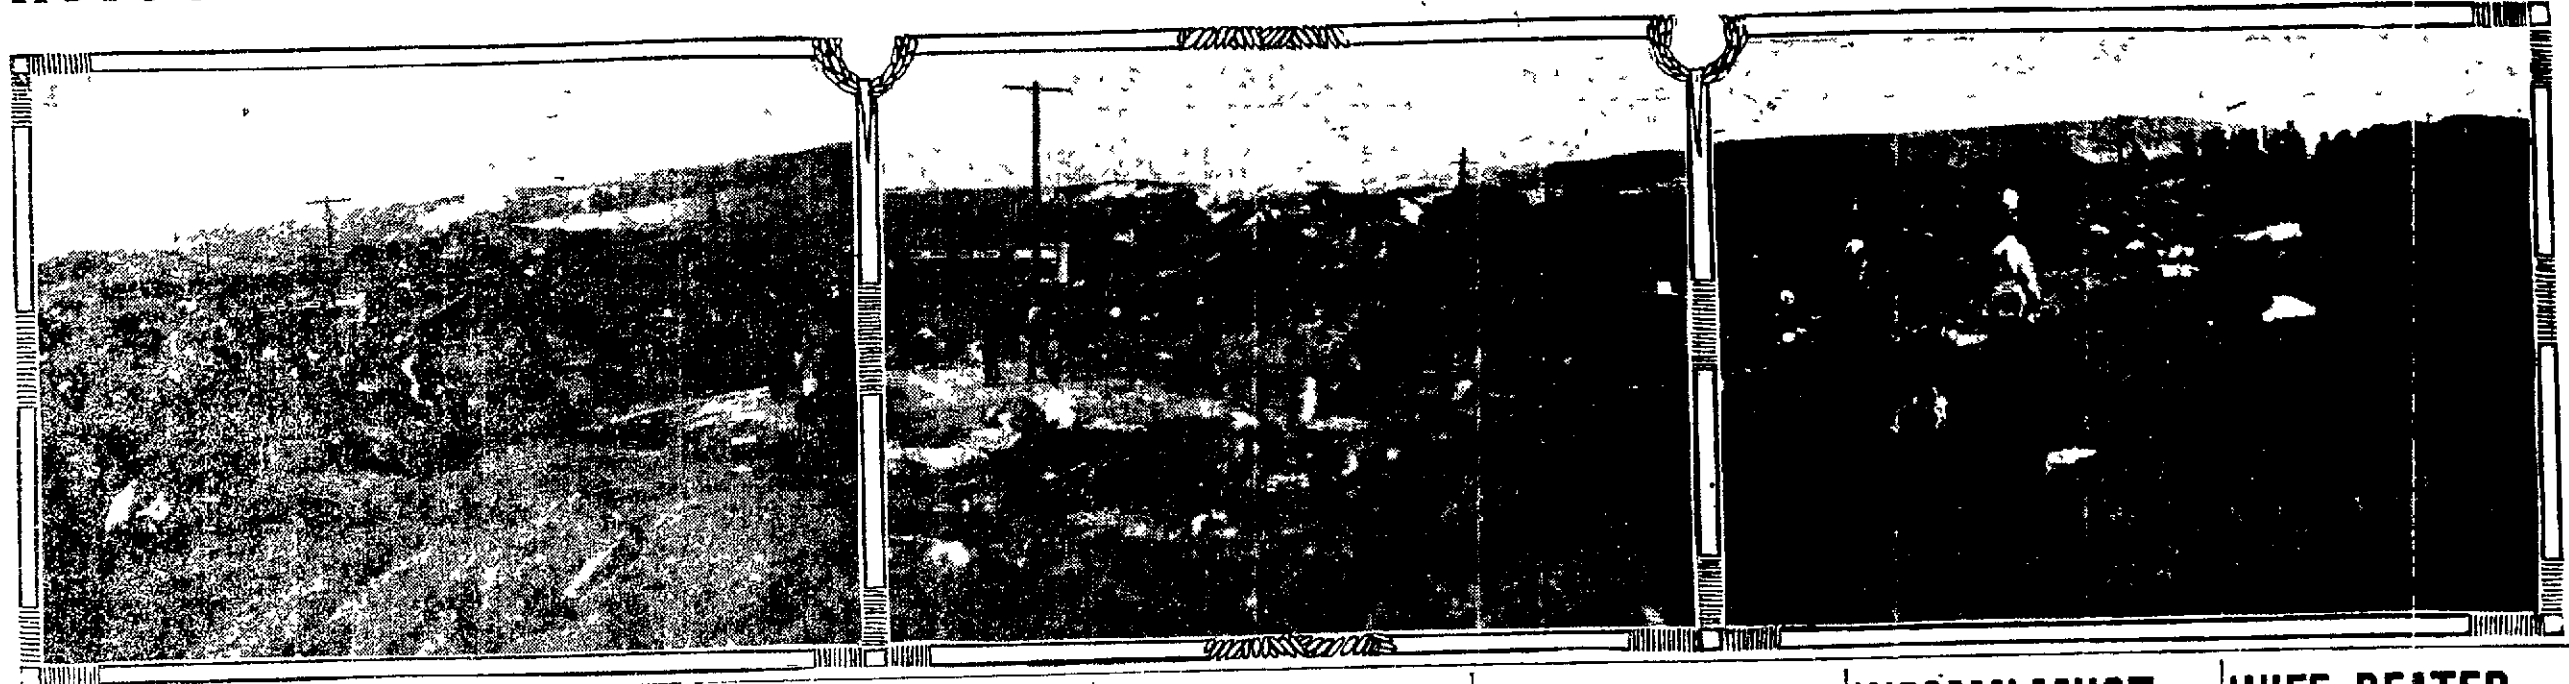

The Southern Pacific has issued orders that the Shriners in command of the party are to receive every attention and are even to be permitted to route the train. Also the company has instructed its agents to accommodate individual members of the party as to stop-overs and routes whenever health or other circumstances seem to make this action advisable. Such action is contrary to the rule of the interstate commerce commission but the company announces that it is ready to pay any penalty believing that in this action of humanity it will be upheld by the commission.

HONDA VICTIMS IMPROVING

CASTRO STREET-CAR STONED

At the car which was filled with passengers. One of them, an old man who refused to give his name, was struck in the head by a piece of brick. The flesh was laid open to the bone and he was propped up. He was removed to the hospital.

Until a dozen police officers charged the crowds with great energy and scattered them. In the confusion the brick throwers escaped. It is stated that there were only two of them.

POLICEMAN WAS HURT

Yesterday's disturbance which was not reported until this morning occurred at Third and California street. As the last car on the Sutter street line was entering the barn at the place named two strike sympathizers who were conversing with policemen suddenly produced rocks from their pockets and hurled them at the car. One of the officers named Collins, in attempting to arrest them was himself knocked down with a stone. The assailants were severely clubbed and sent to headquarters.

CAR SCHEDULE TODAY

Cars are being operated this morning as follows:

On Sutter street from Thirty third avenue to ferries, 21 on Valencia street from Twentieth to ferries 10 on Mission street from Twentieth to the ferries 10 on Haight street from Stanvan to the ferries 11 on the Ellis and Nineteenth avenue line from Oak and Broderick streets 21 on Castro street from Eighteenth to the ferries 8 total cars in operation, 102

PAINTER FALLS TO HIS DEATH

Stricken With Apoplexy He Drops From Staging, Thirty Feet

While working on a staging at the corner of Third and California streets, a painter named John J. J. fell to his death. He was about 30 years old and had been working for some time. He was struck on the head by a piece of wood which he was using to support the staging. He fell about 30 feet and was killed instantly.

BURGLARS RANSACK FOURTH AVENUE HOME

Burglars ransacked the home of a woman on Fourth avenue last night. The woman was alone at the time and was awakened by the noise. She called the police and they arrived to find the house in a state of chaos. The burglars had taken a large amount of jewelry and other valuables.

CITY HALL IS MAYOR'S WISH

With Council Committee He Is Planning to Overcome Problems.

Mayor Mott is proceeding with his campaign for a new city hall and is assured that within a short time an election will be called to submit the proposition to the people in the form of a bond election. No definite plans have been made by the Mayor and the members of the City Council are busily engaged in working out the problems which confront the project. The proposition has been before the public on many other occasions but Mayor Mott feels confident that the present needs of a new and modern municipal building are greater than ever before consequent to the great influx of people into this city and the increase in civic business. Mayor Mott has said several times that he does not favor the present site for a new city hall but he finds that it would probably be difficult to obtain another location. The cutting through of Washington street from Fourteenth street to San Pablo avenue is another problem which will have to be given serious consideration. The Mayor does not think the building should be located on the city block between the city hall and the city hall. The Mayor states that he has outlined a plan to have a large city hall in the triangular lot at the corner of San Pablo and Washington streets. This lot is about six or eight stories high and would be a fine location for a city hall. The Mayor also states that he has a plan to have a city hall in the triangular lot at the corner of San Pablo and Washington streets. This lot is about six or eight stories high and would be a fine location for a city hall.

YOUNG ORRICK IS KILLED

Attempts to Board Train at Belmont and Meets His Death

Injuries sustained yesterday while attempting to board a train at Belmont where he attended school resulted last night in the death of Gerald W. Orrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver S. Orrick of 317 Vernon street. The young man was on his way home and was late arriving at the station. He caught the last car and in doing so sustained internal injuries which caused his death. Mr. Orrick was 21 years of age and a native of this city where he had lived nearly all his life and where he had a host of friends who mourn his untimely death. His parents and brothers and sisters are prostrated over the young man's death. Mr. Orrick is survived by his mother and father and Miss Eliza Frank B. Murray S. Oliver S. Jr. and William H. Orrick. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock from the late residence of the decedent.

BANK ROBBERY MAY HIT HOME

Depository Officials Say $10,000 Theft Promises Sensational Arrests.

POPEKA Kan., May 14—Officials of the Citizens Bank of North Peoria admitted today that the safe had been entered Saturday night and robbed of $10,000 half of it in gold and the balance in currency. No explosives were used but the safe combinations were worked. Suspicious circumstances surround the robbery and the bank officials hint at sensational arrests within a few days.

FEARS FOR HIS LIFE: SAID TO BE INSANE

Lockhart Foye a laborer residing at 3242 Encinal avenue Alameda, was placed in the detention ward of the Receiving Hospital last night and is said to be insane. The complaint sworn to by his brother, John A. Foye, states that he carries a knife and is in deadly fear of somebody's trying to kill him.

WOMAN MUST PAY A FINE

Laundry Worker is Found Riding on a Blacklisted Street Car

SAN FRANCISCO May 14—A woman laundry worker whose name the executive committee of the Laundry Workers Union refuses to divulge was this morning found riding on a street car and will be fined $50, the union having passed a resolution several days ago that all its members found riding upon the street cars would be fined that amount. This is the first offense that has been reported to a meeting of the executive committee tonight. If the woman refuses to pay the fine she will be expelled from the union.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETS

The budget for the next fiscal year was outlined last night by the Board of Education which held a short meeting. The finances of the department were gone over and estimates were made as to what will be needed for the ensuing year. Superintendent of Schools McClelland stated that the budget this year will be a large one.

Labor Organization and the Law.

"I am surprised that THE TRIBUNE, a staunch defender of popular rights and a friend of union labor, has taken the stand it has regarding the car strike," writes a subscriber.

And why, pray? Is it any infringement of popular rights to insist that the law shall be upheld and life and property protected? Is union labor antagonized by saying that riot and lawlessness must be suppressed?

In our opinion the violence and disorder of mob rule are as contrary to the principles of unionism as they are to good government and stable society. Every labor leader of recognized prominence in the nation declares the unions stand for law and order. We take them at their word.

Why, then, should THE TRIBUNE be reproached for hostility to union labor when it takes a stand for law and order? Does our correspondent wish us to believe that the unions do not stand for law and order, and that the labor leaders do not mean what they say?

We do not believe it. That is what D. M. Parry and other opponents of unionism say. Can we not be friendly to organized labor without endorsing the charge made against it by its enemies? We hope not.

"Why does THE TRIBUNE stand up for Calhoun when he obtained his franchises by bribery and fraud?" further inquires our correspondent.

We are not standing up for Calhoun. We are free to confess that we have small liking for the man and still less for his methods. We are standing for an impartial administration of the laws and for giving every citizen equal protection under them. We do not believe anybody is above or below the law. No individual or set of individuals have a right to set the laws at defiance or deny any person liberty of action.

If Calhoun has bribed officials the courts should punish him for the crime. If he has obtained valuable privileges by fraud and corruption, the privileges should be revoked—by the proper authority and in accordance with the laws of the land. Mobs have no right to say he shall not run his cars on the ground that he has violated the law. One form of lawlessness is no excuse for another. It is an old and true saying that two wrongs do not make a right.

Moreover, there is no virtue in that form of sympathy with labor which identifies itself with lawlessness and displays its partisanship by violence and disorder. No strike was ever won by riot and lawlessness. When they are resorted to in the name of union labor, the cause of organized labor suffers. Plain ruffianism is not given a good character by ascribing it to good motives, nor is a good cause promoted by bad acts.

The obligation to keep the peace and obey the law rests upon all alike. No matter what a man's occupation or affiliation may be, the law is for him to obey. He is neither to be denied its protection nor given license to violate it. The man who hurls stones and brickbats is entitled to neither sympathy nor respect, and he has no right to complain when he is clubbed or shot by the persons he assails.

For years THE TRIBUNE has stood for the right of laboring men to unite and organize for their own protection. It is still a firm believer in that right. But it denies that anybody has a right to disorganize society and substitute mob rule for the orderly processes of the law. Only the ignorant can pervert this attitude as one of hostility to union labor or a defense of grinding the faces of the poor.

Patrick Calhoun says he is done with the unions. Perhaps. But he should not make the mistake of construing a public demand for the maintenance of law and order as an endorsement of his methods or the general policy of the United Railroads. There is a wide distinction in the public mind, as he will discover, between preserving the peace and approving his acts. He is entitled to protection for his cars and employees, but whether he is entitled to public sympathy is another matter.

The Credit Side of Municipal Debt.

A floating paragraph in the newspapers calls attention to the fact that the municipal debt of New York City—the Greater New York—is larger than the aggregate debt of the next largest twenty-five cities in the United States. New York's debt amounts to the enormous sum of $417,000,000. This would be rather appalling if one did not examine the credit side of the ledger to see what New York has to offset her large indebtedness. The land in her parks is worth a great deal more than the total of her debt. She has a vast dock system worth an immense sum, and which is a revenue producer. She owns her own water system, which could not be duplicated for the aggregate of her debt. She owns the subway, which pays beside the interest on the bonds issued for its construction a sum annually into the sinking fund, so that at the end of forty years the city will have that splendid underground highway debt free for a revenue producing public utility. New York owns the great bridges that span East River, and the ferry that connects Manhattan and Staten Island. She owns a great university, plant, libraries, museums, schoolhouses, jails, reformatories and other fine public buildings, including a city hall of magnificent proportions. New York owns probably the finest and most valuable municipal plant in the world, and the water, dock and subway systems pay their own way and do not cost the taxpayers a cent. These alone are worth many times the total of the city debt. So New York is not to be commiserated for what she owes. The word debt has a terrifying significance to many, but debt loses its terrors when there are huge assets to show for it.

APPROVES THE TRIBUNE'S COURSE.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: Allow me to congratulate you upon the frank, out-spoken, yet fair and reasonable manner in which you express yourself on all important questions of general public interest, as manifested in an editorial on the 8th inst., "Law and Order vs. Dinan and Anarchy"—in which you certainly voiced the sentiment of all fair-minded, unbiased thinking people of every class and vocation. If all newspapers would courageously unfurl the banner of justice to all classes, without fear or favor, it would certainly have a tendency to prevent officials from showing special favors to any certain class, and would go far towards saving our country from becoming involved in the terrible industrial turmoils which so disastrously handicaps our sister city across the bay at this time. It is gratifying to know that the leading paper on the coast has the courage to speak out plainly.

Uncle Sam—"Take Yer Partners!"

Taft Seems to Be in the Lead.

When Colonel Watterson was in Paris he placed his money on Governor Hughes as the winner of the Presidential handicap. Now that he has returned home and looked the situation over he will probably hedge by betting on Taft. The Foraker fight against the big Secretary of War seems to be petering out, and the Fairbanks boom threatens to permanently go into cold storage. Boss Cox is suing for peace in Ohio on the basis of giving Taft the State's endorsement for President and allowing Foraker to return to the Senate. The Taft forces, however, seem inclined to down Foraker altogether. Hughes is already embroiled in a fierce factional fight in the Empire State that is confusing to an outsider. The President and the Governor appear to be doing politics separately in New York, and in some respects along hostile lines. This was shown when the State Committee voted down, at the instance of Tim Woodruff, former Governor Odell's resolution endorsing Hughes for the Presidency. Woodruff moved to lay Odell's resolution on the table on the ground that it was offered in a spirit of hostility to Roosevelt. This indicates that the President does not propose that anything, not even Hughes, shall get in the way of the Taft boom in New York. This is a busy political year at the White House.

As the denizens of the San Francisco refugee camps are able-bodied enough to smash car windows, they have probably recruited sufficiently to go to work in an honest fashion. It is about time the camps were abolished anyhow.

The right to quit a job is conceded, but the right to throw stones at the man who takes it after it has been abandoned is not conceded. And that seems to be the kernel of the row in San Francisco.

ONE WAY OF LOOKING AT IT.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: I cannot see the use of making very much account of the carmen's strike. You know and everybody knows that they are all young men who are apt to be unsettled in their way of living and if they were to be deprived of their jobs it would make small difference to them. They would hike out and get a new billet very soon. If they win this strike it won't be long before they start another, for they want and must have excitement. This they are bound to have and if their leaders won't give it to them they will find their leaders out. Cornelius found this out when he attempted to make them listen to reason and not strike. He found they would have fired him bodily if he had tried to stop it. If old Calhoun wants to stop strikes he must hire old settled men with families, who will work steadily and save their money and become good citizens, which some of them are now.

If those San Francisco employers don't stop hiring riff-raff to do their work they will ruin the city. Better take longer to rebuild than to flood the town with toughs and hoodlums. Let every employer demand references from his men. Let him hire none but married men, who live near by, and quit thinking that nobody but a young man is good to work, and they will get along much better. People don't realize what a set of hard cases there are in San Francisco. They have come from all quarters, and they will ruin the good name of the town if they are not curbed. They have taken the unions bodily. A decent man don't dare say his soul is his own.

Let us stop wasting sympathy on men who don't want it, and fall to work to get the matter settled. Might as well tell the carmen at once to get out of the way and give place to others. They tell people that they get worse treatment and poorer pay than the laborers in the streets, and if that is so they have no kick coming because Calhoun discharged them. Let them either fish or cut bait.

Respectfully yours, S. G. MORSE.

A newly elected senator from the Northwest was pounding his desk and waving his arms in an impassioned appeal to the Senate. "What do you think of him?" whispered Senator Keen, of New Jersey, to the impassive Senator Knox, of Pennsylvania. "Oh, he can't help it," answered Knox. "It's a birthmark." "A what?" "A birthmark," repeated Knox. "His mother was scared by a windmill."

Curious ways the Japanese merchant has of doing business. A special agent of the United States Government who is now in Japan gives some illustrations. The buyer, he says, makes no payment until the arrival of the goods. If in the meantime the market has dropped, the Japanese will often go to the American and intimate that he is not prepared to stand all the loss and that the American should divide the loss with him, though to do so might wipe out all the profit on the transaction.

"Some women," said John W. Gates, "not all women but some of them, are very poor speculators, very poor gamblers. A young friend of mine has a pretty cousin. He was going to the races the other day and she called him up on the telephone and asked him to put $10 on Forest King for her. 'Very well,' he said, 'I'll do it if you pay me back.' 'Of course I'll pay you back, you horrid thing!' exclaimed the cousin. 'All right,' said he. 'You didn't the last time.' 'Oh, well, said she, 'last time the horse didn't win, you know.'"

A leg was never made of cork since the world's beginning. But many people think as you do and I'll tell you how the fallacy originated. The inventor of the modern artificial leg—the leg instead of the stick—was John Cork. Cork's legs, or cork legs, were famous around 1810. And whenever a man makes your mistake he pays an unconscious tribute to Cork's skill."

Greek Cult ART TOURNEY

THE HANDSOMEST ARM IN ALAMEDA COUNTY SOUGHT

Concerning the exposition of arms of feminine residents of Alameda County, which has made such great headway under the auspices of THE TRIBUNE, a member of the faculty of the State University writes: "I am a professor at Berkeley and have watched with much interest the development of your best-arm contest. You have inaugurated a modern symposium of an ancient Greek cult. It was in the days of Pericles and Phidias, before the birth of Jesus of Nazareth in Syria, that the external beauty of the human body was most fully appreciated by mortals, and Athens was the focus point of that almost ecstatic adoration.

"The arm of a woman may be a wonderfully charming object. Have in mind a type of a perfect hand; then there is the carpus—the wrist, which may be round or oval. Over those two bones (the ulna and radius) of the lower arm what an outline of symmetry may be presented! Over that single bone (the humerus) of the upper arm what a field of exquisite taper may greet the eye! As to the shoulder, what loveliness of contour, in relation to that connecting adjunct, the arm, may be apparent. An arm can be a sublimely pretty creation, and it is astonishing how arms differ in looks; that is, slightness. Dame Nature's workmanship can be a worshipable matter when displayed in the shape of a set of fine arms and gracefully sloping shoulders; heritage of some individual member of the genus woman!"

It will be on June 1st that the trophy tourney will terminate and soon afterward an anxious public will learn from the committee the identity of the volunteer who has the shapeliest arm in these parts, and also will be disclosed the name of that recruit in this competition who has posed with most captivating effect. To the winner in the rivalry of arms will be bestowed a dozen pairs of silk stockings—to cost $5 a pair, second award—for most artistic pose—will be a box of choice gloves. Reader, if you desire to enter the lists, write "Phidias, editorial department, OAKLAND TRIBUNE," for a free photo order.

Stylish Woman Had Them Going

A stylishly dressed and altogether good-looking woman was turning over the leaves of the directory in a leisurely manner when an irascible old gentleman, known to his acquaintances as a man with a very small stock of patience, entered.

He wished to use the directory, too, says the Washington Times, possibly to look up an address of a man who owed him money. He stood about, now and then casting heavy looks in the direction of the directory, and coughed suggestively. A business man in a hurry followed. He wanted to know where Walter Jones lived. It is a block or two away. He had forgotten the number. He fell in line.

Then the man who sought some city official, but knew nothing of his office, except that it closed in a few minutes, joined the ranks of waiters.

Still the woman placidly turned over leaf after leaf, without any apparent intention to decide whether it was Brown, Jones, or Smith she was seeking.

Finally, when matters were beginning to grow very tense, a young man rushed in.

His mission would positively admit of no delay, so he politely offered to assist the young woman, suggesting that his experience might tend to lessen her labor and save time.

When he asked her what name she sought, with a sweet smile full of appreciation, she said:

"Oh, thank you! You are very kind. I am trying to find a real pretty name for my brother's baby. He has asked me to name it. It's a boy and it's so hard to find a real pretty name."

Divorce After Fifty Years

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—After nearly fifty years of wedded life Mrs. Hannah Harris has sued Donald Harris for divorce. The couple were married August 24, 1859. The plaintiff says her husband has failed to provide for her, and has compelled her to live on the charity of her daughters. Mrs. Harris is 63 years old and says she is no longer able to support herself. She also accuses her husband of striking her.

Orchestra Leader—I never heard the prima donna do that high note as well as she did last night!

Stage Manager—Nor I. You see, just as she reached it she saw a mouse in the wings!

LETTERS TO A MOTHER WIN PRETTY BRIDE FOR A RANCHER

Wed on the First Day of Their Meeting

POTTSVILLE, Pa., May 14.—A wedding at Alamogordo, New Mexico, on Friday, which has just been announced here, was the consummation of a romantic courtship of two years, during which time H. Edward Keller, of Bonita, New Mexico, and Miss Hatlie Pfeiffer, of this city, had continued a correspondence, exchanged photographs and finally made mutual promise of marriage, though they had never seen each other, nor had heard each other's voice until they met on their wedding day at Alamogordo, several thousand miles from the bride's home.

Fate, as well as Cupid, seemed to have followed this young woman, for before her destination was reached the train upon which she was a passenger was wrecked. Many were injured. She escaped harm, but the wedding ceremony was postponed, for her fiancé had to travel sixty miles farther to meet her, and instead of the nuptials being performed on Thursday, at Carrizozo, New Mexico, as was appointed, they were married at Alamogordo, that state, instead, on Friday.

Mr. Keller's parents and his bride's mother and family live neighbors upon the same street in Pottsville. Before his parents removed here the son went West and located at Bonita, where he is now the proprietor of a large cattle ranch and fruit farm.

He wrote frequently home, telling of the delightful New Mexico climate, of his success and the opportunities for others to be likewise successful, with the hope of inducing them to go West.

Miss Pfeiffer was a companion of his sister. They frequently rehearsed the contents of those letters in her presence, and Miss Pfeiffer became deeply interested. She expressed the hope or desire that she were there.

This prompted one of the sisters to inform her brother, which shortly afterward brought a letter to her. A mutual correspondence ensued, which became more and more ardent, progressing from friends to lovers, and culminating in their marriage.

THESE CO-EDS DO NOT WANT TO BE HERDED AWAY FROM THE MEN

Enter a Big Protest Against Such a Plan

ITHACA, N. Y., May 14.—A wave of indignation has swept over Sage College, the home of the Cornell co-eds, in consequence of the proposal made by the men of the College of Arts and Sciences last night to bring about a separation of the sexes in university activity, and eventually complete segregation.

"Under the charter and under the endowments of the Sage family, upon which the university is somewhat dependent, the scheme of the men is absolutely out of the question," declared one of the co-eds this morning.

Miss Mary McCabe, chairman of the executive committee, said that of course the women could say nothing, but the association of the women of the college, with Miss Martha Dodson at the head, is bitterly opposed to the idea of segregation. Cornell to them means as much for women as for men, and they resent the idea that they should be separated from undergraduate activity.

"It's all nonsense to talk about rotten politics and the co-ed vote," declared another co-ed this morning.

"Why, the rotten machines of the men in past years have been notorious! I don't know anything about Tammany Hall, but it can't be worse than some of the deals which the men have worked in past years. It's all right now, but let them look back to what it used to be. And then they talk about the co-eds' vote! If the men would take care of their own politics the girls' part of it would be all right."

When the association of men of the College of Arts and Sciences was formed last year the girls felt that they were entitled to be recognized, and appealed to high officials in the senior class to help them out. A compromise was made whereby the women have a separate association of their own, though they still vote in class elections and are on the publication and other committees. And they will make a strong fight for their position, even to taking the matter up to the faculty.

The Cornell Sun, the students' paper, came out editorially today in favor of separation in undergraduate activities. Another interesting feature is the proposed method of getting rid of the co-eds by raising the age limit for entrance one year at every college term.

BUFFALO BILL IS OFFERED $25,000 TO TELL STORY ON MRS. H. GOULD

Advanced Woman Large Sum of Money

DENVER, May 14.—Buffalo Bill (William F. Cody) has unexpectedly been thrust into the limelight as a factor in the domestic troubles between Howard Gould and his beautiful wife.

It was about a month ago that Colonel Cody was called to Denver and offered $10,000, and later $25,000, if he would tell Mr. Gould's agents all he knew of the early life of Mrs. Howard Gould. The story has just leaked out through some of the old scout's old comrades in arms in whom he confided.

Colonel Cody came to Denver in answer to the call—in fact, his old friend, H. H. Hake, went to his ranch at the request of Gould's agents and personally escorted him here.

The agents of Mr. Gould asked him about Mrs. Gould. He knew her when she was Catherine Clemmons and traveled with his show, though not part of it. The agents particularly asked him if he had ever heard anything about Catherine Clemmons and "Big Bill" Hawley fleeing a Frenchman in Italy out of a large sum of money.

They offered Buffalo Bill $10,000 if he would say "Yes, Clemmons and Hawley did do up a Frenchman in Italy several years ago." The veteran scout's answer was typical.

"You'll have to see my lawyers," was his quiet response. "You see," he added, "I have a claim of $60,000 against Mrs. Howard Gould for money due me for her stage education and for financing her productions before her marriage."

The agents never flickered an eyelid as they raised their bid to $25,000 and offered it to him in cold cash for the magic words.

"You'll have to see my lawyers," he repeated.

This was only a month ago and in Denver. So far it has been known only to Colonel Cody's old friends here, and they agree that he took the right course in giving a non-committal answer to the request.

Catherine Clemmons was born in Palo Alto, California, and when a young girl was distinguished for her beauty and talents. Some time in the latter part of the eighties a rich woman of San Francisco took her to Europe. She saw Buffalo Bill and his show at Earle's Court, London, about 1889. She was fascinated with him and sought an introduction. The rest is soon told. She joined the show as an adjunct. It was during one of Buffalo Bill's absences in America that she is supposed to have met Hawley. Colonel Cody spent $120,000 on her in an effort to give her a stage training and career.

In one of his periods of financial stringency she left him. He endeavored on several occasions to get some of the money back that he had spent upon her, as their business adventures were a partnership. He never got a cent.

where there will be no sorrow. Love to you and my friends, who have been so good to me."

The letter was unsigned, and toward the end the writing was only faintly discernible. The young woman ended her life at the home of George W. Bacon, an attorney in this city, where she was visiting. The discovery of the tragedy was not made until noon today.

When the room was entered, the girl lay upon the bed, dead. The room was filled with gas, which poured from three jets, and the windows were tightly closed. Miss Igenfritz formerly resided in Camden, and was formerly in a big Philadelphia department store.

She had suffered from nervousness, and was visiting at the Bacon home in order to recuperate.

WOMEN QUARREL OVER DOG AND NOW THE CASE GOES INTO COURT

They Both Make Claim to a Prize Winner

SEATTLE, Wash., May 14.—Mrs. R. J. Chase and Mrs. E. H. Sheldon, society women, will go into court next Monday to prove the ownership of Trixie, a white bulldog, that won a first prize in last week's bench show at Madison Park. Mrs. Chase carried off the dog when the show was over, slipping the collar off and taking Trixie home. Detectives found the dog and haled Mrs. Sheldon into court to answer.

Mrs. Sheldon claims the prize-winner was stolen from her in puppyhood by Mrs. Chase, and Mrs. Chase insists she has always owned the dog.

Mrs. Chase, who is the wife of a prominent Seattle physician, swore to the warrant that enabled the police to search Mrs. Sheldon's home and to compel her attendance in court. The officers are holding the prize bulldog at the Central Station.

DIVORCE A LA MODE

Mrs. Marie Honora de Gree, prominent matron in swell coterie, was gaily divorced, mid a bower of roses, by the Hon. William Tecumseh Terhune, On last Monday morning, the record discloses, And she is now gone on her vinegarnoon.

But few invitations were out, as the dame Had recently lost her pet dog; but she came Brilliantly gowned, on the arm of her spouse, Who gave her away to the glad co-respondent, While the court discomfited the marital vows, From which for a year Tom de Gree was abscondant.

The plaintiff's grass widows were Mesdames Bess Donner, Jess Wright, with Tess Ryder grass widow-of-honor. The defendant was cheered by James Blunt, the worst man:

While the co-resp's young sister, a dear little honey, Was flower-girl. Forward she walked and began To strew lilies and ferns when the judge granted Alimony.

The party then turned, as the brass band sonorous Played up the old strains of the grand Anvil Chorus. A charming repeat then followed the sundering; Brilliant the wit as the wine with each course, Till all the swell guests were informally thundering; Ne'er have we seen such a modish divorce.

CLOSED STREET ROUSES ACTION

Councilman Demands a Superintendent Who Will Obey Orders Issued.

"Get a Superintendent of Streets who will do as you tell him to," said Councilman H. T. Burns last night at the meeting of the committee of the whole of the City Council when the question of opening Livingston street, in East Oakland, was before the body. City Engineer Turner had stated that Superintendent of Streets Ott had feared to open the thoroughfare, which was closed and used by Cotton Bros., because a suit for heavy damages was threatened against him.

Property-owners in the neighborhood protested against the closing of the street and claim that Cotton Bros. have squatted on the thoroughfare without any right. Councilman Aiken spoke of the matter last night and asked that something be done. City Engineer Turner explained what the Board of Public Works has done in the matter, stating that Superintendent of Streets Ott had not opened the thoroughfare as yet.

Councilman Burns then took the Superintendent of Streets to task and stated that the official should take a positive stand in the matter and remove the obstructions from Livingston street. The City Attorney's office was also taken to task, Councilman Ellis stating that the City Attorney's office had been asked for by the council and that some of them had not been forthcoming for several months.

The Livingston street matter was referred to the Street Superintendent, with power to act.

"A cork leg" said the dealer. "Why, man, a cork leg would crumble under you like a leg of bread. You don't want a cork leg, but an elm or willow one."

"I thought the best ones were cork—the lightest, you know."

"No, indeed. A leg was never made of cork since the world's beginning. But many men think as you do, and I'll tell you how the fellow originated. The inventor of the modern artificial leg—leg instead of the stick—was John Cork. Cork's legs, cork legs, were famous around 1810. And whenever a man makes your mistake, he pays an unconscious tribute to Cork's skill."

DEFECTIVE EQUIPMENT

Is Charged by Coroner's Jury Who Investigated Wreck on S. P.

SAN LUIS OBISPO, May 14.—The responsibility for the terrible accident by which thirty-two persons were killed, and a score or more wounded, near Honda, has been placed with the Southern Pacific Railroad by the coroner's jury, which concluded the inquest last night over eleven of the bodies.

The jury found the following verdict: "We find from the facts of the witnesses that the wreck was caused by defective railroad equipment."

The railroad men all confess to be at loss to account for the derailment, and in none of their testimony before the coroner's jury was any particular light thrown on the mystery of the wreck. They could not deal in facts and their statements were merely surmises.

Frank Champlain, the engineer of the wrecked train, was too ill to appear at the inquest, and his deposition was taken by the coroner. It was to the effect that the train was running at a rate of thirty-five or forty miles an hour when the accident occurred. His impression was that either the tender or the baggage car left the track, causing the derailment of the engine, dining car, and one or more passenger cars. He could give no idea as to what caused it.

The other witnesses testified in a like manner. Some of the passengers stated that the train was running fifty or more miles an hour at the time, while the railroad men say it was between thirty and forty.

Train Dispatcher Walters testified that the train could not have been traveling more than thirty miles, and he gave the time at various points, which seemed to prove his statement. In his opinion the cause of the wreck will never be learned.

The jury deliberated about two hours before rendering the verdict.

JAPANESE CHIEFS TO BE ENTERTAINED

General Kuroki and Associates Will Taste Hospitality of New York.

NEW YORK, May 14.—Preparations are in making to give General Kuroki, Vice-Admiral Jinn and the other Japanese officers, who are expected to visit New York, a most elaborate reception. For the distinguished war chiefs and officers of the ships formal dinners have been arranged, one at Sinter's, Wednesday night, and the second at the Hotel Astor, on Friday night. For the 140 sailors there will be an entertainment committee of local Japanese to pilot them about.

Every man on board the ships will have state fare before the cruise is over. This and other arrangements have been made already to give them as good a time as the British and under Prince Louis of Battenberg had at Coney Island two years ago.

SNOW STORM STRIKES CONCORDIA, KANSAS

CONCORDIA, Kan., May 14.—It has been snowing here since 6:30 o'clock this morning. The snow is melting as fast as it falls, but buildings and trees are covered. A temperature of 33 degrees prevails. Rain fell throughout the greater portion of the night.

HAD WORN THE UNIFORM.

When John Burns entered the British Cabinet there were rumors that he would refuse to wear the cocked hat and epaulettes of official uniform. The king asked him about it. "Not true," replied Mr. Burns, "and, besides, I have already worn your Majesty's uniform." The king, naturally asked when that was. "When I was in Pentonville," answered Mr. Burns, alluding to his three months' sentence after the Trafalgar Square riots.

PARASITE BEES VS. GREEN BUGS

Kansas University Professor is Helping Farmers Destroy Wheat Pest.

LAWRENCE, Kan., May 14.—Professor S. J. Hunter of the Entomological department of the State University, who for the last month has been collecting and sending free to the farmers of the southwest parasite bees to kill the green bugs that have been destroying wheat, received a telegram today from Secretary of Agriculture Wilson at Washington asking for particulars of his work. Professor Hunter replied that he had distributed 2,000 boxes of the parasites to Kansas farmers with uniform good results, but a larger fund was necessary to make the work comprehensive and do it.

Professor Hunter said today that he is still unable to fill all orders for the bees, but is sending out boxes as fast as possible, with the limit of means at his command. Whatever delay the farmers have in receiving the boxes has been caused by a lack of funds to push the work, which is being done gratis by Professor Hunter and the students in his department of the university.

A report received last night said that green bugs have begun to attack the newly sown crop in central Kansas.

ANNUAL SESSION
COMMENCES TODAY

Odd Fellows Fill Angel City

LOS ANGELES, May 14.—The 55th annual session of the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., and Rebekahs of California, began in Los Angeles today. Between 4000 and 5000 delegates and visitors are in the city. Fifteen hundred are here from the northern part of the State. Grand Master Theodore A. Bell of Napa; Judge F. B. Ogden of Oakland, Deputy Grand Master and others arrived yesterday.

SESSION LASTS A WEEK.
The sessions will continue throughout the week ending Saturday. Many matters of importance, including the annual election of officers will come before the convention. The grand officers are progressive. Grand Master Bell will be succeeded by Deputy Grand Master Ogden, who in turn will be succeeded by Grand Warden John F. Baker. The only contests are for the places of Grand Warden and Grand Secretary. For the former office Grove L. Johnson of Sacramento and T. W. Duckworth of Los Angeles are candidates.

NEXT PRESIDENT.
Mrs. Ella Vanoult, of Los Angeles, will be the next president of the Rebekah Assembly. The contest in the Rebekah Lodge is over the office of warden. Mrs. Iva S. Baker of Alturas, Mrs. Ella Stewart of Stockton and Mrs. Alto Orr, of Hollister, are mentioned for the place.

All-day sessions of the Grand Lodge and Rebekah Assembly will be held Wednesday and in the evening the lodges of the city will hold receptions for the visitors. On Thursday afternoon, the Past Noble Grand Association of the Polaris Rebekah Lodge will conduct an excursion to Playa del Rey. The annual Grand Lodge ball will be held in Turner Hall Friday night, and on Saturday the Grand Lodge will adjourn to the State Lodge. As the offices in the State Lodge are progressive, Hon. F. B. Ogden, of Oakland, deputy grand master, will succeed Mr. Bell as grand master. The only competition will be for the office of grand warden, which is the lowest in the scale. Among the candidates for this place are Grove L. Johnson, of Sacramento, and T. W. Duckworth, of Los Angeles. Mrs. Ella Vanoult, of Los Angeles, will be the next president of the Rebekah Assembly.

UNION ISSUES STATEMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

Assert That Situation Is Becoming Clearer

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—The conference committee of the Carmen's Union issued the following statement last evening concerning the situation. They say by day the situation is becoming clearer. Patrick Calhoun has cast down the game of battle. It is not the Carmen he is fighting, but all unions. He is drawing the chess lines as they have never been drawn in this unfortunate town. Two forces, by Mr. Calhoun's act, face one another in hostile array, the small body of the rich and their parasites, the fanatical hate army of unions and union men, and the great body of organized labor and its sympathizers who are determined that the poor man shall have a fair day's wage for a day's work.

CALHOUN'S STAND.
This is the situation and it has been made by Patrick Calhoun. For the sake of San Francisco we regret that the wedge has been driven so deep into but for our own sake we do not regret it. The day the union men of San Francisco recognize that the fight is against them, and that we are bearing the brunt of the fighting, our cause is won.

We wish to protest against the assumption of the newspapers that the violations of law and order have been caused by us. We wish to protest against the action of some of the State authorities who with a lack of that fair-mindedness and good-will which we might reasonably expect from men in high office, are filling the newspapers with vague threats and describing the public mind with unlawful paragraphs. The employment of the military is not at the discretion of superintending Adjutant-Generals or ill-balanced Governors. It is strictly regulated by law, and law and order are the rules as well as for the citizens.

EASY GOING
CONSTABLE

Turned Prisoner Lose Because Justice Did Not Appear in Time.

Although a witness to the shooting of Saul Cornfield by Pasqual Ysuna at Folger and San Pablo avenues on November 17, 1906, Constable William Atkinson of Berkeley, says he allowed his prisoner to go at 9 o'clock that night because Justice of the Peace Edgar did not appear to fix his bonds after the bondsmen were summoned. He said on the witness stand this morning in Superior Judge Melville's court where Ysuna is being tried before a jury for assault with a deadly weapon, that he allowed his prisoner to go, knowing that he would come back to him the next morning.

When asked by Chief Deputy District Attorney W. L. Donahue if that was not a most unusual course to pursue, to allow a man to go on a charge as serious as that without bringing him to the county jail, Atkinson replied that it was the first time he had done anything like that in his fifteen years' experience as an officer. The constable further stated that he had a son sick with typhoid fever at home and he wanted to return as quickly as possible.

Atkinson said he was a witness to the shooting. When he came up to San Pablo and Folger avenues he saw Cornfield, foreman of the Berkeley Rock Company, come up to Ysuna and call him a vile name, insulting him with a blow to the face. Ysuna pulled a revolver after he was assaulted and shot two shots. One of the balls went through Cornfield's hand, causing him to run up the street.
The trouble arose over the rock that was being placed on the street. Ysuna claimed it was not up to the standard and did not want it placed in front of his place. He was waiting for Street Superintendent Turner when Cornfield appeared and the trouble occurred.

Three bicycles stolen. A Pistolet of 266 Seventh street, has reported to the police that his bicycle was stolen from in front of his home yesterday. John J. Allen of 1160 Alice street, while riding from the Lincoln school, while Miss Jennie Friedman of 330 Fifth street, was another victim of the bicycle thieves.

CARS STALLED ON STREET

Big Truck Breaks Down on Market and Stops the Street Cars.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—Hoping that he would be able to block the progress of the cars running to and from the ferry by the way of Market street, a teamster this morning unloosed the bolts on his wagon, and dropped the trucks straight across the ferry-bound and out-bound tracks. The cars were stalled for nearly two hours, and the truck was heavily laden, and the driver obstinate.
When he refused to assist the carmen in moving his truck, several police were called to the scene, and placed the man under arrest. He was placed on detainer, the police wishing to further investigate.
Nearly all the cars that were run to the ferry on Market street were stalled.

VALLEJO YOUTHS FACE
LOCAL ROBBERY CHARGE

Harry Hawkins, a negro, and Edgar McSorley were arrested yesterday in Vallejo and brought to this city, charged with the theft of several bicycles. Hawkins has been in trouble several times before. The youths are being detained at the city prison on the small bond.

A CRIMEAN INCIDENT.

Many of the deeds of heroism recorded in Sir Exel's story of his rise from Midshipman to Field Marshal, but none more thrilling than an incident of the fighting in the Crimea.
"Look out! 'Whistling Dick' was the warning that was shouted one day, and at the call, which referred to a certain huge mortar which had been shelling them, every one in hearing rushed for shelter. All succeeded in getting the trenches, except young Blawitt of H. M. S. Queen. Him the spent shell caught under the knees and pinned to the ground.
"Stephen, Stephen," he called to Stephen Welch, "do not leave me to die!"
The fuse of the thirteen-inch shell was hissing, but Welch did not hesitate a second.

"Come on, lads! Let's try!" he shouted and, leaping from the trench, began tugging with all his strength at the big mass of iron. At that instant it burst, and of neither man was a fragment seen again.

STATE COUNCIL IS NOW
HOLDING ITS SESSIONS

The Knights of Columbus Open Proceedings, Attending High Mass.

The State Council of the Knights of Columbus opened propitiously this morning with a solemn high mass at St. Francis de Sales church, the Right Rev. Bishop da Silva, as celebrant, the most Reverend Archbishop Rordan present in the Sanctuary. The sermon was delivered by the Rev. Father Joseph P. McQuade, State Chaplain.

LADIES ENTERTAINED.
Convening of the State Council was held at the Key Route Inn, where the ladies

Philip J. Fay of San Francisco; State Advocate, W. H. Langdon of San Francisco; State Warden, J. P. Coyle of Fresno; State Chaplain, Rev. Joseph P. McQuade of Sacred Heart Church, San Francisco.

TOMORROW'S PROGRAM.
Wednesday's program will be as follows: Morning, free time. 1 p. m. luncheon at Piedmont Springs, where the afternoon will be spent, giving all a chance to visit the new art gallery. A troupe of Hawaiian singers and players will be in attendance.

7:30 p. m.—Third degree for the men. Thursday party for the ladies.
Impressive services were held this morning in St. Francis de Sales church, where a high pontifical mass was celebrated in honor of the Knights of Columbus of the Oakland Council and fifty-six visiting delegates, who are holding a two-day convocation in the Maccabean Temple. The Right Rev. Bishop da Silva, nephew of King Arthur of Portugal, performed the mass. The music, rendered by the choir, added to the sacredness of the occasion.

ANNUAL SERMON.
The sermon preached by Rev. Father Joseph McQuade, state chaplain, Knights of Columbus, chose for his text the proverb "Time Flies," a motto inscribed on the banners of the order. He showed how time is variously estimated, how some people place a sordid and material value upon it, others giving a higher and fleeting moments. His sermon was in part as follows:

ETERNITY.
"If we confine our whole meditation to the text, 'Time Flies' we conclude the spirit and lesson which is significant of the organization. What does the flight of time mean, but eternity. While we seem to have lost its meaning men have grasped it. In their worldly conditions we must make the most of time. There are various estimates of the value of time. The conservation of faculties is a demonstration of time. On your lips and hearts you have the sentiment 'Time is Money.' Men need not be told that time flies. The philosophers and thinkers say time is the stuff that life is made of and one who wastes time in their estimation is guilty of propaganda. Time is to him the stuff of life. He has a life-work and therefore makes the most of life. There is a method in the madness of philosophers. Notes are made of the consciousness of the value of time. We Christians measure time correctly. Time means eternity, a greater or less eternity.

WORLD HAS FAITH.
"Have we any faith? The man of the world has faith, because he makes the most of time. The philosopher has faith even in the simplicity of his philosophy. We, it is said, stamp our class upon what we believe all of it. The defendant, he declared, would have to be proved guilty before he found him so.

juster value, whilst Christians give to time its highest and truest estimate, and yet Christians must be reminded that it flies and that we must make the most of it. Life in its opportunities for good was presented to the knights. The high purpose and aims were dwelt upon. And since they are over to remember from their own motto that time flies the knights were urged to make the most of the

SNOW IN NEBRASKA:
RAINFALL IN KANSAS

William Jennings Bryan's Home State is Now Mantled in White.

OMAHA, Neb., May 14.—Snow fell in several different sections of Nebraska last night and continued falling today. At Lincoln there is half an inch of snow on the ground. Snow has been falling at Columbus since daylight. Half of northern Nebraska is covered with snow.

KANSAS CITY, May 14.—Over three inches of rain fell last night in southwestern Missouri. There was a precipitation of over two inches of water in other portions of Missouri and in southwestern Kansas, and a light fall of rain generally in other parts of Kansas and throughout most of Oklahoma. In the vicinity of Kansas City the wind blew at a velocity of forty-seven miles and hour, and the rainfall amounted to .16 of an inch.

FORMER STATE SENATOR
DIES IN SAN JOSE

SAN JOSE, May 14.—L. A. Whitworth, a prominent banker and lumberman of Gilroy, died last night aged 76 years. He was president of the Bank of Gilroy, director of the Commercial Bank of this city and of the Bank of Hollister, and owned large timber and mill interests. He had been mayor of Gilroy, assemblyman and state senator.

LIQUOR MEN WIN.

WATSONVILLE, May 14.—Mayor Trafton, who led the fight for higher license in this city, was defeated by James Linscott at one of the most hotly contested municipal elections held in this city in many years. The liquor interest won a complete victory, and the proposition of raising the license rate to $1000 a year was defeated 3 to 1.
Linscott's majority was 246.

VERDICT OF SUICIDE.

A coroner's jury last night returned a verdict of death by suicidal intent in the case of Fred Mires, the young man who drank carbolic acid after being scolded by his father for playing out late at night. Mires resided at 811 Brush street.

FOURTEEN PERSONS
ILL AT FRUITVALE

Impure Food Attributed as the Cause—All Are Out of Danger.

FRUITVALE, May 14.—While it is true that several persons in Diamond or Upper Fruitvale district have recently been ill from eating impure food, as is supposed, the grossly exaggerated accounts of the incident in a morning newspaper is calculated to unduly alarm friends of those mentioned as suffering "great agony."

As a fact some of the local residents were afflicted with illnesses and cramps but not of a violent character. Dr. R. L. Jump, who attended them states that he does not know the cause of their illness. He says that the patients so afflicted were in no danger as the attacks were not violent, and that all have now apparently entirely recovered from the indisposition of yesterday.
Among those who were temporarily ill were Mrs. J. Gerow and her three children; Mrs. D. Dow and two children; M. Stackhouse, Mrs. N. Tulley and son; Mrs. C. Harg and son; Mr. and Mrs. D. Ramsay.

ARGUMENTS IN KNOWLES CASE

Former Corporal is Accused of Shooting Captain.

FORT SILL, Okla., May 14.—Arguments were begun here today in the court-martial of Corporal Knowles, colored, formerly of the Twenty-fifth Infantry, stationed at Fort Reno, charged with shooting Captain Edgar MacKinn. The verdict will be announced from Washington later.

LOST SALE OF SPONGES.
A bale of sponges, valued at $100, was lost or stolen from a wagon belonging to Frank Collichman, of 2439 Central avenue, Alameda, yesterday, aboard the creek route boat. Collichman has notified the local police of his loss.

MANY JURORS CALLED,
BUT FEW ARE CHOSEN
Politics and Opinions Probed

BOISE, Idaho, May 14.—The line of preliminary progress toward the impaneling of a jury to try William D. Haywood for the alleged murder of Frank Steunenberg has crossed the front row of the jury box and by this afternoon will pass into the rear line. The fifth talesman—Allen P. Fride, a young farmer, was passed shortly after 11 o'clock and when court rose for the noon recess the effort to fill the sixth chair was in progress. The defense must still examine the entire sixth row before peremptory challenging can commence.

DRAMATIC INCIDENT.

Mr. Darrow, who today for the first took the examination of talesman, gave a tone of solemnity to the conclusion of his examination of talesman Pride. Advancing to a point where he immediately faced the talesman he leaned forward and in an impressive voice asked him if he were prepared for his life if he would be prepared to be tried by twelve men in the frame of mind Pride first said that he "hated to contemplate such a thing," and that the defendant "could do worse" in jurors than he was. Pride said he did not want to serve on the jury but that he would do his duty fairly.

WAGGONER CHALLENGED.

J. L. Waggoner, the member of the original panel who figured as the complainant in the Yost case, was challenged by the defense on the general ground that his experience in the case unfitted him for service. In the case, a condition which he admitted was well founded, and Judge Wood sustained the challenge.

Two talesmen from the special venire developed irremovable prejudice against circumstantial evidence, and went down before challenges from the state.

The free circulation of Socialistic papers throughout Ada County was again shown, this time during the examination of Talesman Pride.

BOISE, Idaho, May 14.—In the Haywood case Allen P. Fride, a farmer, was called to seat No. 5 today. He answered satisfactorily all the questions propounded by the attorneys for the state and was quickly turned over to the defense for examination. Pride insisted that he had no fixed opinion one way or the other. The only thing he knew about the case was what he saw in the "public print," but he did not believe all of it. The defendant, he declared, would have to be proved guilty before he found him so.
Pride is 36 years of age, is a Republican, but not a church member.

The defense passed the talesman and reserved to question later the deputy who served the summons upon Pride.

Mr. Darrow took up the examination of George Walker, the butcher who was passed into seat No. 6 last Thursday. Walker said at that time that he had an opinion and a challenge was interposed by the state. The defense resisted at the time, but today after a few questions by Mr. Darrow, the defense joined in the request for Walker's discharge. It was ordered by Judge Wood.

Raymond Jones, a farmer, was called into the box. Jones said he came to Idaho from Iowa. He formerly worked on a sawmill.

Answering Mr. Hawley, Jones said he had an opinion, but it was not a strong one and could be changed by the evidence.

Have you an opinion at this time as to the guilt or innocence of the accused?
"Yes, sir."

"But you could disregard it in the light of the evidence?"
"Yes, sir."

Jones said he had neither received nor read any of the Socialist papers which had been freely distributed in and around Boise during the past few months.

RAISED THAT WAY.

Jones had been under examination nearly half an hour before Mr. Hawley finally asked him if he had any conscientious scruples against capital punishment.

"I have," said the talesman.
"How long have you entertained that idea?" asked Judge Wood.
"I was raised that way."

"Excused," said the judge, who suggested that in future it would be well to ask the talesman about their scruples earlier in the examinations.

HARD OF HEARING.

C. H. Frank, a farmer who said he was "hard of hearing," was called to the witness chair and with hand held back of his right ear listened to the questions put by Mr. Hawley. He said he had an opinion, but it was not fixed. Frank was challenged by Mr. Darrow on the ground of physical disability, but the attorneys for the state resisted and Judge Wood denied the challenge.

Mr. Darrow then drew from the talesman the admission that it would require strong evidence to remove the opinion he had already formed.

A challenge for cause was consented to by the state and Frank was excused.

But Hingsworth was called just as the luncheon adjournment (until 3 p. m.) was ordered.

CORNELIUS SATISFIED WITH THE SITUATION

Union Carmen Are Not Responsible for the Acts of Hoodlums Across the Bay.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—"There is an element in the community that we are unable to control, and for this reason it is feared that violence will be administered to persons who attempt to ride on the cars, whether they be members of the various societies or other walks of life," said Richard Cornelius, president of the Carmen's Union to a TRIBUNE reporter today.
"I fully realize that it is necessary for the reporters and correspondents for the various newspapers to get around as fast as possible. However, this unruly class will not stop at anything, and therefore, I would advise the members of the press to find other means of transportation."

"I have received a communication to the effect that Williams, the strike breaker who took the first car out of the barns for the United Railroad was paid $1000, and that he has disappeared. I also have communications from numerous societies and organizations offering both moral and financial support to the cause of the carmen."

"The situation is growing more favorable every day. The United Railroad is not able to gain a cent of profit from their big holdings to pay dividends to their numerous eastern stockholders, but are losing thousands of dollars each day that the strike is prolonged."

OFFICIALS CANNOT ESTIMATE LOSS
Peoria Bank Safe Will Have to Be Forced Open; Burglars May Have Left Funds Intact.

PEORIA, Ill., May 14.—A peculiar feature in connection with the blowing of the Yates county bank last night is causing the officials of that institution some anxiety as to the amount of the loss. The robbers blew the safe, which contained about $8000, but in doing so the door was not taken off its hinges and has been closed, the heat contraction swelling the door in place and it is impossible to open it. Experts have been sent for, and until they arrive the loss cannot be determined.

DOG GIVES ITS LIFE TO RESCUE CHILDREN

A New York dispatch says: A dog belonging to William Greshauer of Sing Sing, N. Y., recently gave its life in saving the three children of its master.
When Mrs. Greshauer went to the church, Helen, eleven years old and the little mother of the family; Mabel, eight, and William, five years old, were left alone in the home, which is some distance from the home of the nearest neighbor. Helen was preparing the noon meal in the kitchen and the two younger children were playing on the floor when an outside door opened and a man stepped in.

"Little Helen felt the responsibility of her position and assumed an air of bravery, asking the intruder what he wanted."
"Tell me where your mother keeps her money and I won't hurt you," said the man.
"My mother has no money in the house," replied Helen.

The intruder then bolted the door and advanced threateningly toward the child: "Get me all the money in the house at once or I will kill every one of you!" he cried.
At this threat the two young children began to scream and gather about their mother, who stood between them and the intruder.
"Over a large shepherd dog, which was not near the house when the man appeared, had returned. When the children screamed the dog tried to get into the kitchen by pushing against the door, and the dog launched himself through a window, shattering the glass, and jumped for the intruder's throat.

While the man was fighting for his life against Rover's furious attacks the children opened the door and ran for the home of a neighbor.
On the way they met John Halpin and told him that a man had threatened to kill them. Halpin ran to the Greshauer home. When he was still some distance away he saw a man running for the woods.
In the kitchen Halpin found the dog dying, with its throat cut. In jumping through the window it had inflicted a mortal wound on itself, but butted for the safety of the children and home of its master until it dropped.

SNOW AND RAIN.

The first man to whom it ever occurred to find out how much rain was represented by a given fall of snow was Alexander Brice of Kirkcubright, who, in March 1765, made a simple experiment with the contents of a stone jug driven face downward into over six inches of snow. What he learned was that a greater or less degree of cold or of wind when the snow falls and its "driving a longer or shorter time on the ground" will occasion a difference in the weight and in the quantity of water produced, "but if," he added, "I may trust to the above trials, which I endeavored to perform with care, snow newly fallen, with a moderate gale of wind, freezing cold, will produce a quantity of water equal to one-tenth part of its bulk." So that a fall of snow of ten inches represents a rainfall of one inch.—London Chronicle.

BRIEF SUMMARY OF NEWS ACROSS THE BAY

ATTEMPT TO MURDER.

Attracted by the sound of two shots in a room in the Elkhorn house, 153 Valencia street, yesterday morning, Detective Harrison arrived on the scene just in time, after breaking down the door, to prevent Carl Anderson, a drunken mariner, from murdering his wife. He had fired two shots at her, one of them going into the back of her head. The second shot grazed the woman's right wrist as she was endeavoring to wrest the weapon from her husband's possession. Anderson is now booked for assault to murder.

RESTORING STOLEN MONEY.

The examination made by the California Bankers' Association yesterday into the charge made by David Joseph Walsh, a recent arrival from Seattle, that the sum of $1140 deposited by him in a safe deposit box in the Citizens State Bank on Filbert street, had been stolen, resulted in the confirmation of every statement made by Walsh as to the possession of the money previous to the time of its reported loss. President Haglund, who therefore called upon the Bankers' Association to keep his promise that, if Walsh should so prove up, the bank would cover the loss, Walsh has since been paid $1140 and the plaintiff's lawyer's bill of costs.

MINING DECISION REVERSED.

The United States Court of Appeals has reversed the decision of the Second District Court in Alaska, in the suit brought by Joseph Forderer against Walter Schmidt and others and the Wild Goose Mining and Trading Company for the recovery of his interest in mining property on Chitina creek, Alaska. Forderer was in arrears for development work and sent the amount of his assessment by a third party. The defendants held that the tender was not legal and complicated Forderer's interest. The Alaska court sustained the plea set up by the defendant. The Court of Appeals declared, however, in reversing the judgment of the lower court, that it made no difference to the defendants who tendered the money due, as the tender did not involve the acquisition of any right, privilege or property by the person making it or the surrender of any property held in pledge or otherwise by the person to whom it was made.

LIFE SENTENCE CONFIRMED.

The Supreme Court has confirmed the sentence of Joseph Clark to San Quentin for life for the murder of Joseph T. Cross on November 30, 1898.

SUFFOCATED.

The four-day-old babe of Mr. and Mrs. John Keenan, of 1503 Kentucky street, was found dead yesterday morning, having been suffocated in bed between its parents during the night.

REDUCED SENTENCE.

Ten days have been lopped off the thirty days suspension of A. R. Paulson, chief mate of the Steamship Pomona, by Supervising Inspector John Birmingham. Paulson and his superior officer, Captain Swanson, were both tested on their efficiency to conduct a fire drill, and found negligent. The inspectors imposed a penalty of ten days' suspension on Swanson and thirty days on Paulson, giving the latter an extra dose because he was disrespectful when the test drill was ordered. Captain Birmingham held that both captain and mate were equally guilty of negligence, and cut down the latter's suspension to twenty days, the five days extra being imposed for his disrespectful conduct toward the inspectors.

FORGED CERTIFICATES.

Yesterday, a jury in Judge Lawlor's court brought in a verdict of guilty against Joseph E. Mink, alias E. M. Mink, charged with forgery. The evidence showed that under the false representation that he was a clergyman named Rev. S. M. Joseph, Mink had bought certain shares of mining stocks from Doubleday & Co., brokers, and raised the figures on the certificates, selling them later in Nevada on the forged numbers. Graphic handwriting exhibits reproduced by the camera were conclusive evidence of the crime. Mink will be sentenced May 21.

CHARTER SUPERSEDED.

In the suit brought by Joseph Rothchild, a citizen and taxpayer, against the city and county treasurer, to test the validity of the charter provision requiring the public funds to be deposited in the city treasury, Judge Sewall yesterday sustained the demurrer, in which the point was raised that the statute passed at the last session of the Legislature permitting the treasurers of the cities to deposit their funds in banks for safe keeping, when protected by proper security, was paramount. Being the later expression of the will of the people, Judge Sewall held that the statute superseded the charter. The case will be appealed.

COST OF HONDA WRECK.

At Southern Pacific headquarters it is estimated that the Honda train wreck represented a total loss to the company of over one-third of a million dollars, as follows: Thirty-two dead at $5000 each, $150,000; nineteen wounded at $3000 each, $57,000; total estimated cost of casualties, $312,000; damage to locomotive, $2500; damage to Pullman diner, Capitol, which was a very old car, $5000; damage to Pullman sleeper, Guiana, $1500; damage to Pullman sleeper, Owego, $700; damage to Pullman sleeper, Ocala, $300; damage to various other railroad property, $1000; total damage to railroad property, $14,500; forty-one trunks and nine suit cases badly damaged, total $7000. Grand total $333,500.

SPEAKS NO ENGLISH BUT VERY WEALTHY

Son of Rich Syracuse Merchant Brings Japanese Bride With Him.

SEATTLE, May 11.—Horace H. Lavine, son of a wealthy shoe merchant of Syracuse, N. Y., passed through here with his Japanese bride on his way home to break the news of his marriage to his parents. Mrs. Lavine is reported to be very wealthy. She speaks no English. Lavine enlisted in the First Tennessee Volunteers and was in the Boxer troubles with the Ninth United States Infantry.

PUTS OFF SALE OF BONDS TO JUNE 17

Would Secure Larger Bonus for City in Disposing of Securities.

The park bonds were not sold by the City Council last night, the time for the sale being extended until June 17. It is the desire of the council to give more publicity to the sale in order that more bidders may enter into competition and give the city a larger bonus. The amount of the bonds to be sold is $992,000.

Mayor Mott sent a message to the council asking that the time be extended for the disposing of the issue of bonds. The money obtained by the sale is to be used for the purpose of purchasing park sites in many different sections of the city.

FORMER U. S. ATTORNEY DIES. SEATTLE, May 14.—Joseph K. Woods, former United States Attorney at Nome and afterwards displaced for alleged connection with the Nome-Mechanic mining grab, died in the northern city last Saturday of paralysis. He had been practicing law in Alaska since 1900.

BREAD RIOTS IN TEHERAN.

TEHRAN, May 14.—A riot of food is causing frequent bread riots here. Many persons have been injured in the fighting.

CLOSE ALL OPIUM DENS.

SHANGHAI, May 14.—All the opium dens in Foo Chow have been closed. This action greatly pleased the gentry and the literary classes.

FRANCHISES ENGAGE THEIR ATTENTION

New Members of Council to Study Merits of Railroads' Applications.

Franchise applications held the attention of the committee of the whole of the City Council for a short time last night. The hearing of the applications of the Western Pacific Company and the Union Belt line for franchises to construct and operate lines south of First street was set for hearing on June 10.

In all probability on next Monday night the Wood street franchise applications of the Santa Fe, Western Pacific Company and the Key Route will be finally determined. Councilman Elliott declared last night that the council had been chasing its own tail and had accomplished nothing in many months of discussion. The new members of the council are to study the situation in the interim between now and Monday and at that time offer suggestions or pass the ordinance granting the franchises.

Dandelion

unequalled for the cure of dyspepsia and all stomach trouble

Guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drugs Act, June 30, 1906. Serial number 3517.

It is the work of the stomach to ferment the food and anything that interferes with this process of fermentation may be a cause of dyspepsia. Strictly speaking there are dozens of causes of stomach trouble. The kind and quantity of food taken, worry, mental excitement, nervousness, lack of proper exercise, it takes many forms such as debility, (that tired feeling), loss of appetite, pain after eating, acidity, flatulence, vomiting, palpitation, cramps in the stomach.

Dyspepsia is dangerous because it has very marked influence on the bowels, the kidneys and the heart. It should therefore never be neglected. One or two boxes of Dr. Edwards' Compound Dandelion Tablets have cured many severe cases of stomach trouble. If you are a sufferer from this complaint buy today a box of this famous vegetable remedy and enjoy your meals the same as you used to do.

Tribune Proverb Hunt

Opened April 7th—Lasts 50 Days.

What Proverb or Quotation Does the Picture Below Represent?

No. 37 TRIBUNE PROVERB PICTURE

The TRIBUNE Proverb Hunt is open to everybody except TRIBUNE employees and members of their families.

Do not send in single answers.

HOLD ALL ANSWERS UNTIL THE CLOSE OF THE CONTEST.

Before writing about any point or rule which you do not understand, read over the conditions of contest to make sure that your question is not already answered by the rules.

DO NOT send in answers until close of contest, and then send in ONLY the ANSWERS—NOT the PICTURES.

No. 37 Picture Represents the Following Proverb or Saying

Contestant's Name.....

Street and Number.....

City or Town and State.....

How to Enter the Hunt

THE TRIBUNE'S Proverb Hunt is contest of skill and diligence. Every day for fifty days there will appear a picture or cartoon representing a familiar and commonly used English Proverb or Quotation.

The correct answers, to serve as a basis of awards, have been selected from a standard work on English Proverbs and placed under seal. This correct list will be published with the announcement of the winners.

Cut out the picture and the answer blank, which will be published every day, commencing Monday, April 7, and save until the close of the contest. This will enable you to think about the answers and afford ample time for all members of the family to offer suggestions. As all editions of THE TRIBUNE will be quickly sold out every day, we cannot guarantee to supply blank numbers of the paper after the regular edition is sold out.

To assure getting THE TRIBUNE, order it delivered at your home. One week will be allowed after publication of the last picture for answers to be sent in. This will afford time for careful answer of the final picture, as well as examining the answers to the previous pictures. The answers may be filled out in any legible way, by handwriting, typewriting, pencil, ink or by machine. All answers to the Proverb Hunt Manager.

Rules of the Hunt

1.—The Proverb Hunt is open to all, but contestants must indicate the proverb's each picture represents on the blank provided therefor—and all may compete without charge or consideration of any kind, but only the member of a family will be entitled to receive a prize.

2.—Contestants may submit as many answers to each proverb as they desire, but each must be upon a separate blank.

3.—Blanks may be filled out in any legible way, by pen, pencil or typewriter, etc.

4.—Answers must be sent in only at the close of the contest. All answers must be in THE TRIBUNE'S office within 15 days after the last of the fifth picture has appeared.

5.—All answers must be plainly addressed to the Proverb Editor, THE TRIBUNE, Oakland, Cal. They may be left at the office or mailed, in which event they must be fully prepaid.

6.—Employees of THE TRIBUNE and members of their families are positively barred from competing for rewards in this contest.

7.—In making the awards the judges—whose names will be announced in due course—will take into account the similarity of the answers to the exact wording of the proverbs as selected by the Proverb Editor; spelling, punctuation and the correct construction are the essentials that will be graded. Reasonable neatness will be taken into consideration. The awards of the judges will be final in all cases.

8.—The first prize will go to the person answering all, or nearest all, of the fifty proverbs correctly. The person answering the second largest number correctly, or nearest so, will receive a second prize, etc.

9.—In the event of a tie for any prize, the value of such will be equally divided, or a prize of similar character and value awarded each being contestant.

10.—THE TRIBUNE reserves the right to make any changes or additions to these conditions that it may deem desirable in the interest of contestants. The good faith and honor of THE TRIBUNE are pledged to insure a "square deal" for all.

$2,000,000 FOR CITY WHARVES

Council Postpones Action Until Engineer Can Prepare Plans and Estimates.

Two million dollars, instead of $200,000, is figured as the cost of extensive wharves and docks for this city by Councilman H. T. Burns and last night he made an amendment to his former resolution that a bond election be called to raise two millions for wharves, instead of $200,000.

The amendment was temporarily withdrawn, however, when Councilman Jackson moved that the entire matter go over for a time, in order that the city engineer might prepare plans and specifications and an estimate of the cost of the proposed docks. This motion was carried.

Dr. Jackson stated that he had been in Los Angeles and that he had heard of Councilman Burns in the motion, and had tried to have estimates made. "This is too large a proposition," said Councilman Jackson, "to estimate off-hand, how much it will require to carry it to successful conclusion. I know that $200,000 would not be a drop in the bucket. I am working diligently on the proposition and in a short time will be able to make a report."

BONIFACES' ANNUAL MEET

More Than 800 From Everywhere in Attendance.

WASHINGTON, May 14.—More than 800 hotel proprietors and from every State in the Union and from many Canadian cities are in Washington to attend the twenty-eighth annual reunion of the Hotel Men's Mutual Benefit Association, which convened today for a four-day session. An elaborate program for the entertainment of the hotelmen has been prepared by the Washington branch of the association.

PIEDMONT TERRACE

BY THE LAKE

The most ideal home place in all the beautiful sections of this city, situate right close in, only seven minutes' car ride from the center of town, on the rolling hills affording beautiful vistas and delightful climate; if you have seen it once, come in and see it again, now that the street work grading is showing off the lots at their best; buyers that got their lots at first offerings are refusing 50 per cent advance now and will get more. Remember, the easy terms make them desirable investments, because you can sell at an advance before you have to complete your payments. The tract is at the end of Santa Rosa avenue, three blocks east of Oakland avenue car line.

MARINE NEWS

POINT LOBOS, May 13, 10 p. m.—Weather, hazy; wind, northwest; velocity, 10 miles.

NOTICE TO MARINERS

The following affects the List of Lights and Fog Signals, Pacific Coast, 1908. Oregon—Columbia river light vessel, No. 50, range No. 84 (List of Lights, Buoy and Daymarks, Pacific Coast, 1907, pages 46 and 53). Stationed in 213 feet of water, off the entrance to San Francisco Bay, about 1-1/2 miles SSW 7/2 W, southerly from Cape Diemantpoint light station. The vessel parted her moorings today, was towed inside the Columbia river, and will be replaced on her station as soon as the weather permits. By order of the Lighthouse Board, P. J. WELLS, District Inspector, U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey, Office of Inspector 13th Lighthouse District, Portland, Ore., May 10, 1907.

U. S. COAST AND GEODETIC SURVEY

NOTES

The above tabulation of the daily tides are given for the purpose of convenience, commencing with the early morning tide in the left-hand tide column, and the succeeding tides as they occur. On some days there are three tides, the usual fourth tide occurring the following morning. The column of heights gives the elevation of each tide above or below the plane of Coast Survey Chart Soundings. The numbers are always added to the chart tide unless preceded by the minus sign or dash (-), when the numbers are subtractive from depths given on the chart.

CLARK DEMANDS TRIAL BY A JURY

BERKELEY, May 14.—Thomas Clark, alleged proprietor of the "blind pig" at the Sequoia Club, who was arrested about ten days ago for selling liquor contrary to the ordinance, entered a plea of not guilty to Police Judge Edgar this morning. He was represented by Attorneys Lin Clark and Milton J. Hayne, and Clark will be tried before a jury May 20th.

LATEST NEWS FROM NEVADA GOLDFIELDS

GOLDFIELD, Nev., May 14.—Judge J. W. Deane, one of the best authorities on mining in the west and a mining writer of wide reputation, went to Buckskin this week and has given his opinion on that young camp which is rapidly coming into prominence. In an interview recently he said: "A person of experience elsewhere, intending to visit Nevada, mining camps should have a water-light, dust-proof, unbreakable box, of size to accommodate experience, prejudice, preconceived opinions, and all mental bias, and before starting out, having first chloroformed them, should lock them securely in and throw the box down some old abandoned shaft, then come the hole in on top of them, for until the resurrection of the dead he will not want them again. On the face of earth there are not duplicates of these conditions. There is no will or must about it. The problems here are each sui generis.

"No camp is the repeat of another, and there is no possible basis of comparison. The sole common feature is the prevalent silicas with the ores, but those silicas pursue whatever course they will, in and out of formations capriciously, cross them, hit-scat at any whim or angle.

STOCK AND BOND BOARD ELECTS ITS OFFICERS

The annual election of officers of the Oakland Stock and Bond Exchange for the ensuing year was held at the exchange rooms yesterday and the following-named gentlemen unanimously re-elected to the respective offices:

President, Bernard P. Miller; vice-president, James P. Edoff; secretary and treasurer, T. E. Hunt. Arrangements are now being perfected for getting out a daily record of sales and quotations for distribution in hotel and prominent places throughout the city and also to secure frequent quotations from the San Francisco and Goldfield Exchanges for posting throughout the day on the bulletin board at the exchange to which the public can have access.

COMMITTEE CALLS MASS MEETING

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—Under a call of the executive committee of the Labor Council, in view of the present labor troubles throughout the city, a mass-meeting has been called by the members of the council at the headquarters at 3 o'clock tonight.

LA CERRITOS SYNDICATE

experience, did in throwing over Tonopah, flouting Goldfield, and turning back on all the land from Cuprite to Greenwater. It is easy to see why not one of the Schooled Men had "made good" in Nevada though but are not touch properties because they are unlike any successful things known to them elsewhere. It takes the nerve of the untried, or the blind persistence of the unreasoning, to tackle Nevada marvels.

"The compulsion of penury and of poverty gave Goldfield's start. Let some mining geological stroller puzzle over this—bass and porphyry in contact, carrying rich gold quartz! "Charming situation is Buckskin, on the margin of an elliptical valley more than twenty miles long and seven miles wide, with an up-lift of 1500 feet to the north, girt by higher mountains than its own mineral hills, and in the greatest depressions and about midway of length there is an alluvial lake or sink. There is in the valley a central uplift of some four miles length and apparently of rhyolite, considerably prospected and having excellent showings. ## WHAT HAPPENED, WHO'S 'JONES'?

Strange Tale of Highwaymen and Hold-Up on San Leandro Road.

"What Happened to Jones" last Saturday night along the San Leandro road is a tale with a mystery that is going the rounds of Oakland society. This is what happened. Jones was held up by two desperate highwaymen who relieved him not only of his purse, but of the charming society of a young woman who was occupying the tannery of his automobile.

This is the mystery. Who was "Jones"? The various members of the extensive family of Jones in Oakland who ride in automobiles are making mere explanations than the wrong Mr. Wright.

"JONES" GETS AN IDEA.
Mr. "Jones," so the story goes, was enjoying himself in the cafes about town when he became impressed with the conviction that he had been duped by the highwaymen who had relieved him of his purse and the charming society of a young woman who was occupying the tannery of his automobile.

In his convivial mood he had acquired a friend and companion for the proposed trip who is suspected of complicity in the plot. Missing the pleasures of former society "Jones" and his friend induced a young woman to join them.

"HE'S ON THE WAY."
San Leandro road has its system of wireless telegraphy and it soon became known along the way that "Jones" was coming. Just beyond Fitchburg, where there is a turn in the road the machine was stopped by masked men.

To give the situation a serious aspect the highwaymen who were very clumsy at the business insisted on having all the money in the crowd. In the excitement of the moment it did not occur to "Jones" that highway robbers do not often encounter themselves with women and he saw them making away with his guest in deep alarm.

He was ordered to turn his car toward the city and make the best time possible.

THE RUN FOR HOME.
"Jones" promptly complied with the injunction. He didn't halt his car until it had reached High street. There he dropped into Charles Harrison's inn for a "bracer" and amid tears of vexation poured his troubles into the Harrison's ears. He also confided to the

WILL EXPLAIN LAUNDRY BILLS

Steward Harry A. Borchert to be Called Before Grand Jury
Wednesday.

Steward Harry A. Borchert of the Alameda County Receiving Hospital will be called before the Grand Jury tomorrow afternoon to explain the manner in which the laundry bills for that institution are presented to the Board of Supervisors. As the bills have now been turned in by the laundries they are the total amounts and no itemized. Whether the bills are excessive or not it is not explained, but the Grand Jury desired to hear the explanation of the circumstances.

"For the past year or more I have not turned in the laundry slips," said Steward Borchert this morning. "This was because the county expert told me not to bother about it, because, as he said, it made the bills too bulky. I used to paste the slips from the laundry on the bills and send them in that way to the expert. When he told me not to bother with all those slips, I just had the laundries send in a bill for the total amount. I have the slips here for over a year, but I will not itemize on the regular bills for all the laundry work done for the hospital."

The four laundries doing the work for the Receiving Hospital are the Contra Costa, Excelsior, Cascade and Oakland French Laundry.

barber the story of his robbery and the kidnapping of his companion.

"Jones," however, retained sufficient caution to give an assumed name, a misleading address and to otherwise conceal the fact that he is one of Oakland's prominent citizens. But this fact does not stay the ripples of movement which have been traversing San Leandro road since Saturday night.

Quips and jests at "Jones" expense are heard all along that thoroughfare. It is even hinted that the abandoned and kidnapped young woman to the fate of getting back to town on a street car, not daring to invoke the aid of the peace officers to rescue her.

ARRANGES FOR NEW SCHEDULE

Cooks and Waiters Will Submit
Plans for $12 Per Week and Ten-Hour Day.

As was anticipated, the Cooks and Waiters' Union has prepared a new schedule of wages and hours which will be submitted for the consideration of the proprietors the latter part of this week. The scale calls for the raising of pay from $10 to $12 per week for waiters and corresponding increase in the wages of cooks. Hours are to be shortened to ten from ten and one-half and twelve, which some of the men are now serving in all night restaurants.

Both sides, those who pay and those who are paid wages, assert there will be little, if any trouble. No general walk out is expected and at the worst, the help of only two or three houses will strike. Even at these there is said to be good grounds for believing all possible differences will be settled before June 3, the date upon which the present contract expires.

Many of the restaurants are already paying the scale that is to be asked for, and have been for a number of months past. In these there is no possibility of a walk out, as the new demands will not add to the payroll.

LONG ILLNESS ENDS IN DEATH

Berkeley Resident Passes Away at Sanitarium.

BERKELEY, May 14.—Mrs. Hilda Farrell, wife of J. W. Farrell, for five years a resident of Berkeley, died Saturday at Burke's Sanitarium in Sonoma county. Burke's Sanitarium, in Sonoma county, of heart trouble. Decedent had been in the hospital three weeks ago. The body was brought to the undertaking parlors of Jameson & Niehaus last night, where it will be prepared for burial in Vacuna, Wash., where her parents now live.

Several years ago Mrs. Farrell and her husband conducted a confectionery store on Shattuck avenue, but she was forced to retire on account of ill health.

POLISHING UP

Miner Flannigan Toys With the Muses

Jimmie Flannigan arrived in Oakland from Nome last evening and will indulge in a course of dancing lessons lasting over two weeks.

Between attacks on a poudrous dish that looked to sustain four dollars' worth of ham and eggs the big miner from the north imparted this information:

"That ain't nothing in your papers in this neck of the woods," said he, petulantly as he tossed a S. F. morning news marvel on the floor. "Joe hunted all over this measly rag fur to locate a dancin' school an' a than might as well look for pay dirt an' gambler's life. What's the matter with 'em anyway?"

"If I am not mistaken," hazarded a meek voiced little man on the other side of the table, "there is an academy of dancing around the corner."

The big one was mollified. "Now you're talkin' business," said he. "I guess this Oakland can go some." Then he drifted off into the story of his hopes and aspirations.

"When a feller quits dancin' the best of his future is behind him," he began somewhat epigrammatically.

"I've been up north for eight years now an' I'm agoin' back East to see the folks. Could I dance? Say mister when it comes to shakin' my feet I uster be a hull team—first ter set down an' last ter shove my chair back from the table, so to speak. But a feller gits rusty up north prospectin' an' gambler's life."

"Yep, I've been hungry more times than you could count—up an' down, in an' out. I allus figured when I hit the rich I would go back an' see the folks so I want to git polished up a bit."

"Private lessons, that's what I'm a goin' ter take. You kin git 'em can't you? Well, that's what I want. There's dance halls ter home an' Folbranks an' all them camps but they ain't my kind. They might be just the correct thing. I was up to Seattle, that's where we landed, but every second man I met there was from the north. Nobody wanted to talk about anything but minin' claims. I don't want that line of conversation. Just now I want to get polished up a bit. Then I'm agoin' to New York."

So now it is that Gotham should put on her best bib and tucker and prepare to receive a new social light that threatens to eclipse all other sons of the great silence that have journeyed hither and looked upon the lights of the great city.

TAFT FORCES HARD AT WORK

Battle in Ohio is Attracting the Attention of the Politicians.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, May 14.—The situation early today following the calling off of the Republican conference by Senator Dick, set for tomorrow, is chaotic. The politicians here do not know what to do but probably the man invited to the conference will remain at home, although some of them over the telephone today declared they were coming to Columbus to get the lay of the whole situation. Chairman Vreeland, leader of the Taft forces, busy today conferring with his lieutenants and neither he or Chairman Brown of the State Central Committee, had anything to give out. Some sort of an announcement may be made during the day.

JEERS FOR SOTHERN AND JULIA MARLOWE

London Audience Objects to Realistic Portrayal of Henry the Eighth.

LONDON, May 14.—Julia Marlowe and E. H. Sothern had their baptism of fire last night when they were called before the curtain of the theater where they are playing "When Knighthood Was in Flower" and were hooded and jeered.

The audience jeered their realistic portrayal of Henry VIII in an American play.

NEW SYNAGOGUE FOR BETH JACOB SOCIETY

East Oakland Methodists Petition for Removal of Property to Dimond.

A contract was let yesterday afternoon by the Congregation Beth Jacob for the building of a new synagogue at Ninth and Castro streets at a cost of $20,000. The building must be finished by September. The organization will also conduct a free Hebrew school. The building committee consists of M. Jonas, H. Davis, M. Silverstein, I. Herold, D. Moskowitz, M. I. Isaac, I. Wollin, W. Simmons, E. Barnett, M. Lindenbaum and M. Jacobs.

WOULD SELL SITE.
The Higgins Methodist Episcopal Church of East Oakland has petitioned the Superior Court to give them permission to dispose of their property at Fruitvale avenue and Champion for $6000. They state that by selling their former site, they can readily use the money to build a new church, near Dimond, East Oakland.

ESTATE VALUED AT $31,890.
The estate left by the late Samuel W. Hawthurst has been appraised at $31,890. The property consists of stocks and bonds in various corporations, promissory notes, mortgages and realty.

BOYS TRY TO BEAT
WAY ON KEY ROUTE
S. H. Wels and Martin Hartmann, two lads of 19 years, were arrested last night by State Policeman McConnell of the Key Route. The boys attempted to evade their railroad fare from San Francisco to Oakland on the Key Route. Justice of the Peace Quinn set their bail at $10, which was promptly raised and they were released.

BICYCLE RIDER FINED.
BERKELEY, May 14.—Gus Kasik, arrested last week for riding his bicycle on a sidewalk, was fined $5 by Police Judge Edgar today for violation of the ordinance.

SENIOR BALL IS SUCCESS

Was a Really Delightful Function and a Thoroughly Enjoyable One.

BERKELEY, May 14.—The senior ball, given at Hearst Hall last night, has passed into history as one of the most successful affairs of this kind to the credit of the University.

The big gym, where the dancing took place, looked like a glorified conservatory of blossoms, flowering branches of trees, garlanded vines that draped walks and supports, all with the ample profusion possible only in California. A small garden full of palms screened one end of the big room, and here Paul Steinhoff's musicians played waltzes and two steps until after 2 o'clock in the morning, when the last reluctant couples left for their homes.

REFRESHMENTS SERVED.
Refreshments were served downstairs where the rooms were decorated in the fragrant fringe-tree branches. Thousands of these fringe-like clusters of flowers hanging from large oeilights that shaded the lights, made one think of being in some modern Arcadia, where all was music, laughter and brightness.

The gowns worn by the girls were, for the most part, artistically simple, although there was here and there the elegant swirl of silken skirts and the appearance of costly lace, which, however, only emphasized the crispness and freshness of flowered dainties and sprigged organdies or the soft white muslins that seemed to be the favorites with the University girls.

PATRONESSES.
The patronesses were: President and Mrs. Benjamin J. Wheeler, Professor and Mrs. George Edwards, Professor and Mrs. Chauncey Wells, Professor and Mrs. Charles Derbath, Professor and Mrs. Adolph C. Miller.

The committees in charge were General chairman, Miss Reby Bartley; floor manager, Charles V. Craig.

Arrangements committee—Roy E. Warner, chairman; Miss Ora Lucas, Miss Carmel Riley, Miss Amy Fischer, J. Grant DeRemer, Harold M. Hall. Decoration committee—A. F. Sherman, chairman; Miss Hazel Hogan, Miss Dora Burdett, Miss Ethel Meredith, Miss Gertrude Nealey, Llewellyn Evans, Philip M. Cassidy, Robert D. Pike, Wilson T. Lundy, Stafford Hamm. Reception committee—Eric V. Daveller, chairman; Miss Juliette Lavy, Miss Bernice McVee, Miss Julia Greenfield, Miss Frances Hughes, Kent A. Hawley, William B. Weston, Harold H. Kelley. There were about 300 or more in attendance.

UNION PACIFIC IS TO BUILD CUT-OFF

Orders Work Resumed on Track
Over Athol Hill, Wyoming.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., May 14.—Telegraphic instructions have been received to resume at once the building of the Athol cut-off between Cheyenne and Denver. The contract, amounting to $1,500,000, was let some months ago and as soon as work began it was ordered discontinued.

The cut-off is built to avoid the steep grade over Athol Hill and will reduce the time of trains between the two cities.

FORFEITS BAIL;
THEN SWEARS OFF
BERKELEY, May 14.—Chet Perkins was brought into Police Judge Edgar's court this morning on a bench warrant issued Saturday after Perkins had forfeited his cash bail put up when arrested for intoxication.

Perkins was very penitent this morning, meekly entering a plea of guilt and telling the court that he and whiskey had parted ways and never again would he appear in court with such a charge against him. Judge Edgar was in a lenient mood and suspended sentence pending good behavior.

SAVES SEVEN MEN FROM THE FLAMES

Night Watchman in Chicago is Hero of Fire in Dearborn Street Building.

CHICAGO, May 14.—Seven men were saved last night by Frank McGinnis, a night watchman, in the six-story building at 331 Dearborn street, when he made a trip to the top floor of the burning building and brought them down in an elevator through flames and smoke. He had made two trips previously, bringing down men each time. The fire was started by an explosion in the etching room of the Columbia Engraving Company on the second floor. The blaze was extinguished after $50,000 damage had been done.
